

A night with sea watch

FOUNDATION

We would like to welcome you to a free event for all to come and learn about the marine environment here in Cardigan Bay, the research conducted by the Sea Watch Foundation and the whales, dolphins and porpoises of the UK.

The evening will include talks from the Sea Watch team, a viewing of short films from the 2015 survey season, a chance to learn how to get involved with Sea Watch and much more!

Sunday 4th October

New Quay Memorial Hall
18:00 - 20:00
